ARRIVING IN PARIS

YOUR ADMINISTRATIVE SITUATION

You are a foreigner and wish to stay in France: in order to stay on French territory without risking expulsion, you should apply for a residency permit. There are various possibilities (asylum claim, applying for residency permit) depending on your personal situation.
In the box below you will find information on how to start an asylum claim.
This is not the only available option.
These procedures are long and complicated.

For legal help, go to a free legal aid advice service (see page page 11)

For more information, read the procedure section of this guide (see page 40)

ASYLUM CLAIM

Call the OFII to arrange a meeting: 01 42 500 900

Monday to Friday: 10am-3:30pm
Wait for the language options to choose your language.There are lots of people calling at once: The waiting time can be very long. Every call cuts off automatically after 45 minutes. You have to try several times.

⚠ Careful, this number is not free. It's the price of a local call.
If you don't have a phone, go to a day center (page 15), the people working there will lend you one.
⚠ If you are unable to get a meeting, take a screenshot of the calls made to the OFII from your phone.
This will help you prove that you've called several times and that you haven't been able to get a meeting to make an asylum claim.

HOUSING

Emergency accommodation for all

If you don't have any accommodation, you can call this emergency number for free: 115

You don't need a French residency permit to qualify.

⚠ Careful, there aren't many spaces so accomodation isn't guaranteed and is often only available for a short stay.

More information on page 29.

Accommodation for asylum seekers

During your first appointment at the Prefecture (see page 41), the OFII should offer you housing.

The waiting time can be very long.

There are other accommodation solutions, even before your procedure starts.

These options are different for men, women, families and couples (see the following)

Caution, the French Office for immigration and integration (OFII) can offer you a referral to accommodation in another region than the one you filed your asylum claim in. If you refuse to go where you're referred, you will not be entitled to accommodation or financial benefits (ADA) anymore. More information on page 34.

Single men

If you want to apply for asylum or if you have started your asylum procedure, you can go to a day centre (see below) for information and advice. For those who have applied for an asylum request at the prefecture, you can apply for housing at a day centre. Be aware that the waiting time can be very long. This kind of housing is only available to registered asylum seekers who receive ADA financial benefits and have never been provided with housing before.

YOUR DOCUMENTS

⚠ It is very important to keep photographs and copies of all documents and letters in your name that may be given to you while you're staying in France.
Keep these copies in various different places (at a friend's place or at an organisation) and online (in your emails...).

As soon as you arrive, make sure you keep track of all of the documents you receive and organise them by theme (health, work, education, etc).

- They can be useful for your asylum procedure or in case of arrest to prove your presence on French territory and allow organisations to better understand your situation.
- These proofs of presence in France will be mandatory if you request a resident permit. Examples: your income declarations (taxes), medical prescriptions, social security certificate, phone and electricity bills, Pass Navigo, proof of domiciliation, pay slips, French class registration and diplomas, various letters...

GETTING AROUND

Tickets

Metro tickets Métro-Train-RER (2,55€) allow you to make a single trip on the metro, tramway or RER (you can take various metro lines but once you leave the metro your ticket is no longer valid) within 2h.

- It is cheaper to buy a ticket in the metro than on the bus.

Pass Navigo

This is a travel pass that you can top-up to get the bus, metro and RER. It costs 90,80€ a month but some discounts are available:

- CSS beneficiaries (ex CMU-C) get a 75% discount
- AME beneficiaries get a 50% discount
- RSA beneficiaries get it for free

To get a Navigo Pass

Ask for a Navigo Pass at a RATP office in most metro stations, at the ticket office. Issuing a Navigo pass is free and compulsory. If the RATP agent refuses to issue it, try another agency.

To benefit from the "Solidarité transport" discount

www.solidaritetransport.fr/first-request/online/home
Asylum seekers can get help from the association that gives them their mail (SPADA). If you are not entitled to these discounts, you can buy a 'Pass Navigo Découverte' (with daily, weekly or monthly top-ups) or a 'Pass Navigo Liberté' (linked to your bank card, a journey in Paris costs 1,64€). You can get more information at an RATP office.

If there is an inspection

If you travel without a valid ticket, you risk a fine. If there is an inspection, your identity papers might be requested. If you don't have any ID, the inspectors could ask the police to come and check your identity. If you are arrested, see your rights on page 29.

The inspectors can't search your belongings without your consent, but they could ask you to leave if you refuse.

If you are fined

In the event of a fine, please note the time limits:

- You have a maximum of 3 months from the date of the offence to pay your fine. After this period, the fine may increase.
- If you pay it within the first 20 days, you will get a 20€ discount.
- Please note, if you don't have a bank card, you can only pay with cash for the first 30 days, in the 5 following offices:

Les Halles, Gare de Lyon, La Défense, Noisy-le-Grand Mont d'Est et Bourg-la-Reine (see the metro map on page 62).

The inspectors give you a document called a fine ticket (PV) or receipt: you should keep it with you.

If you have no income, you have three months from the date of the offence to contest the fine. Please note that this does not always work.

If there are any difficulties or you can't pay the fine, ask for help from a social worker (see page 28)

-18 UNACCOMPANIED MINORS

(UNDER 18 WITHOUT A LEGAL GUARDIAN)

1. What is an 'unaccompanied minor'?

You are an "unaccompanied minor" if:
- You are under 18 years old
- You don't have parents or legal guardians (adults with legal authority over you) in France.

As an unaccompanied minor, you are considered "in danger". You will therefore be protected and taken into care by Child Welfare Services: Aide Sociale à l'Enfance (ASE).

2. Your rights in France

The French State is legally responsible for unaccompanied minors on its territory and therefore has to protect them. Child Welfare Services (ASE) is responsible for accommodating and protecting these unaccompanied minors. Before being taken into care, you will first need to take an "underage and unaccompanied" evaluation with the ASE. This evaluation is mandatory to be taken into care and protected by the ASE who will interview you to assess if you truly are underage and unaccompanied. Usually, this only takes a few days, but it can take up to a few weeks. Once you are officially recognized as underage and unaccompanied, you will be accommodated and guided towards independence until you turn 18. That will include socio-educational work, education or training, legal and administrative monitoring.

4. The evaluation interview

You will most likely have a quick 1st interview, then will be placed in a shelter while you wait for a second interview. Usually, you must stay in the shelter before the next interview.

The 2nd interview will be longer, and you will have to discuss: your identity, your family, your life in your home country (living conditions, education), the reasons you left, your journey to France, your living conditions since your arrival in France, what you plan to do in France.

- Don't forget to bring the documents that prove you are underage. Warning: it is very dangerous to show fake identity papers.
- You can ask an organization (see p11) to help you retrieve documents from your home country.
- You have the right to an interpreter of your native language.

In some cases, after this evaluation, the ASE can ask for "complementary examinations":
a verification of your identity papers (if you have them), and sometimes, a bone age assessment.
Note that you should not undergo any medical exams or X-rays if you did not give your consent and if the judge has not allowed it!

5. After the interview

After the interview, the evaluation center is in charge of filling out a report for the ASE. Then, the ASE is in charge of determining whether or not you are underage based on that report.
You should receive an answer from the evaluation centre in the following days. Any rejection must be notified on a document that indicates the reasons behind that rejection.There are two possibilities:

- You are officially recognized as an unaccompanied minor: you will be accommodated (in a shelter, or in an apartment, and in some cases in a foster home), you will be supported by a tutor, you will learn French, go to school or undergo professional training in a specific field of work.
- Or, the ASE does not recognize you as being underage and/or unaccompanied.

6. In case of rejection

If you aren't recognized as a minor, the reasons for the rejection should be explained in a document. It is important for you to keep that document for the next steps. You have the right to appeal the decision before a children's judge. The judge will set up a meeting to hear your case. They can also ask for complementary examinations: the verification of your papers and medical exams, with your consent. Once they have reviewed your case, the judge can either recognize you as an unaccompanied minor or confirm the ASE's rejection.

- You have the right to an attorney
- When waiting for the judge's decision, you will not receive housing or financial aid from the Government.

7. Seeking asylum as a minor

If you are underage, have fled your country in fear for your life, or have been persecuted, you can also apply for asylum in addition to the procedure for recognition that you are underage. Because you are underage, an ad hoc administrator (a legally responsible adult) will be appointed to help you through your asylum application. This person is a professional (sometimes someone who works for an organization like France terre d'asile). If a member of your family is currently in another European Union country, you can ask to join them.

Please note: As a minor, you will not be granted an asylum seekers allowance (ADA). Only the ASE can house unaccompanied minors because you cannot be housed in adult centers adults. For more info on asylsum see p 40.
