YOUR ADMINISTRATIVE SITUATION

You are a foreigner and wish to stay in France: in order to stay on French territory without risking expulsion, you should apply for a residency permit. There are various possibilities (asylum claim, applying for residency permit) depending on your personal situation. In the box below you will find information on how to start an asylum claim. This is not the only available option. These procedures are long and complicated.

For legal help, go to a free legal aid advice service (see page 11)

For more information, read the procedure section of this guide (see page 40)

ASYLUM CLAIM

Call the OFII to arrange a meeting: 01 42 500 900

Monday to Friday: 10am-3:30pm

Wait for the language options to choose your language. There are lots of people calling at once: The waiting time can be very long. Every call cuts off automatically after 45 minutes. You have to try several times.

⚠ Careful, this number is not free. It's the price of a local call.

If you don't have a phone, go to a day center (page 15), the people working there will lend you one.

⚠ If you are unable to get a meeting, take a screenshot of the calls made to the OFII from your phone. This will help you prove that you've called several times and that you haven't been able to get a meeting to make an asylum claim.

HOUSING

Emergency accommodation for all

If you don't have any accommodation, you can call this emergency number for free: 115

You don't need a French residency permit to qualify.

⚠ Careful, there aren't many spaces so accommodation isn't guaranteed and is often only available for a short stay.

More information on page 29.

Accommodation for asylum seekers

During your first appointment at the Prefecture (see page 41), the OFII should offer you housing.

The waiting time can be very long.

There are other accommodation solutions, even before your procedure starts.

These options are different for men, women, families and couples (see the following)

Caution, the French Office for immigration and integration (OFII) can offer you a referral to accommodation in another region than the one you filed your asylum claim in. If you refuse to go where you're referred, you will not be entitled to accommodation or financial benefits (ADA) anymore. More information on page 34.

Single men

If you want to apply for asylum or if you have started your asylum procedure, you can go to a day centre (see below) for information and advice. For those who have applied for an asylum request at the prefecture, you can apply for housing at a day centre. Be aware that the waiting time can be very long. This kind of housing is only available to registered asylum seekers who receive ADA financial benefits and have never been provided with housing before.

ACCUEIL DE JOUR CITÉ

🏠 1 boulevard du Palais, 75004 Paris

🚇 4 Cité

🕒 Monday to Friday 9am-4pm.

Come early to register for a housing transit centre (CAES).

More information on page 17.

ACCUEIL DE JOUR ROCHEFOUCAULD

You can get help there to call the OFII number.

🏠 15 avenue du Général Leclerc, 75014 Paris

🚇 6 4 RER B Denfert Rochereau

🕒 Monday, Wednesday, Thursday, Friday 9am-4pm.

🕒 Tuesday 9am-2:30pm.

Come here to register for a transfer to accommodation (CAES or the region's SAS).

More information on page 17.

Families, couples and single women

Access to accommodation will vary depending on your family structure and the timing of the asylum procedure.

If you haven't submitted an asylum claim yet, you are less likely to be provided with housing. Call the OFII number (see green box to the left) to ask for accommodation during your asylum procedure. The Aboukir day centre specialises in helping families, couples and single women who have only just arrived in Paris.

ACCUEIL DE JOUR BARON LE ROY

Families or pregnant women without housing, here you can get help with your asylum claim.

🏠 28, rue Baron le Roy

🚇 14 Cour Saint-Émilien

🕒 Monday-Sunday: 9am-12.30pm, 2-5.30pm

🕒 Closed in the afternoons on Tuesdays

Reception and shelter on Saturdays, Sundays and bank holidays (only during the day)

More information on page 17.

UTOPIA 56

🏠 Place de l'Hôtel de Ville, 75004 Paris

🚇 1 11 Hôtel de Ville

For families, single women, couples and unaccompanied girl minors.

Distribution of blankets and solidarity housing (people host you in their house) for one night.

🕒 Monday-Sunday at 6pm

For unaccompanied minors, see page 8

YOUR DOCUMENTS

⚠ It is very important to keep photographs and copies of all documents and letters in your name that may be given to you while you're staying in France.

Keep these copies in various different places (at a friend's place or at an organisation) and online (in your emails...).

As soon as you arrive, make sure you keep track of all of the documents you receive and organise them by theme (health, work, education, etc).

- They can be useful for your asylum procedure or in case of arrest to prove your presence on French territory and allow organisations to better understand your situation.
- These proofs of presence in France will be mandatory if you request a resident permit. Examples: your income declarations (taxes), medical prescriptions, social security certificate, phone and electricity bills, Pass Navigo, proof of domiciliation, pay slips, French class registration and diplomas, various letters...

USEFUL APPS

 Use the ADOBE SCAN app to help you scan your documents.

 TARJIMLY
Allows you to contact a volunteer translator directly via the Messenger application (written, audio and voice messages) f Tarjimly

 SPIKY COMMUNITY
A free application with access to useful information for getting set un in France, with good tips and advice for discovering the city.

GETTING AROUND

Tickets

Metro tickets Métro-Train-RER (2,55€) allow you to make a single trip on the metro, tramway or RER (you can take various metro lines but once you leave the metro your ticket is no longer valid) within 2h.

- It is cheaper to buy a ticket in the metro than on the bus.

Pass Navigo

This is a travel pass that you can top-up to get the bus, metro and RER. It costs 90,80€ a month but some discounts are available:

- CSS beneficiaries (ex CMU-C) get a 75% discount
- AME beneficiaries get a 50% discount
- RSA beneficiaries get it for free

To get a Navigo Pass

Ask for a Navigo Pass at a RATP office in most metro stations, at the ticket office. Issuing a Navigo pass is free and compulsory. If the RATP agent refuses to issue it, try another agency.

To benefit from the “Solidarité transport” discount

www.solidaritetransport.fr/first-request/online/home

Asylum seekers can get help from the association that gives them their mail (SPADA). If you are not entitled to these discounts, you can buy a 'Pass Navigo Découverte' (with daily, weekly or monthly top-ups) or a 'Pass Navigo Liberté' (linked to your bank card, a journey in Paris costs 1,64€). You can get more information at an RATP office.

If there is an inspection

If you travel without a valid ticket, you risk a fine. If there is an inspection, your identity papers might be requested. If you don't have any ID, the inspectors could ask the police to come and check your identity. If you are arrested, see your rights on page 29.

The inspectors can't search your belongings without your consent, but they could ask you to leave if you refuse.

If you are fined

In the event of a fine, please note the time limits:

- You have a maximum of 3 months from the date of the offence to pay your fine. After this period, the fine may increase.
- If you pay it within the first 20 days, you will get a 20€ discount.
- Please note, if you don't have a bank card, you can only pay with cash for the first 30 days, in the 5 following offices:

Les Halles, Gare de Lyon, La Défense, Noisy-le-Grand Mont d'Est et Bourg-la-Reine (see the metro map on page 62).

The inspectors give you a document called a fine ticket (PV) or receipt: you should keep it with you.

If you have no income, you have three months from the date of the offence to contest the fine. Please note that this does not always work.

If there are any difficulties or you can't pay the fine, ask for help from a social worker (see page 28)

EMERGENCY NUMBERS

15 SAMU

If you have serious coronavirus symptoms and difficulty breathing.

18 Firemen

Report a dangerous situation: accidents, fire, sick person...

17 Police

Call to get help in case of assault

114 SMS emergency

Allows deaf and hearing-impaired people as well as everyone who can't make a call to alert the emergency services 24/7 by SMS, chat, videoconference.

115 Samusocial

Emergency accommodation for one or more nights. Open 24/7 but you may have to call several times and wait about 2 hours. Ask for an interpreter for your own language. You can ask for humanitarian assistance (warm food, hygiene kit, blankets, clothes and shoes).

119 Children in danger

Emergency number for any child or young person who is a victim of violence or anyone who is concerned about a situation where a child is in danger.

3919 Women violence info

For female victims of violence (domestic, sexual, psychological, forced marriages, sexual mutilation, harassment...). Doesn't deal with emergency situations.

UNACCOMPANIED MINORS

(UNDER 18 WITHOUT A LEGAL GUARDIAN)

1. What is an 'unaccompanied minor'?

You are an "unaccompanied minor" if:

- You are under 18 years old
- You don't have parents or legal guardians (adults with legal authority over you) in France. As an unaccompanied minor, you are considered "in danger". You will therefore be protected and taken into care by Child Welfare Services: Aide Sociale à l'Enfance (ASE).

2. Your rights in France

The French State is legally responsible for unaccompanied minors on its territory and therefore has to protect them. Child Welfare Services (ASE) is responsible for accommodating and protecting these unaccompanied minors. Before being taken into care, you will first need to take an "underage and unaccompanied" evaluation with the ASE. This evaluation is mandatory to be taken into care and protected by the ASE who will interview you to assess if you truly are underage and unaccompanied. Usually, this only takes a few days, but it can take up to a few weeks. Once you are officially recognized as underage and unaccompanied, you will be accommodated and guided towards independence until you turn 18. That will include socio-educational work, education or training, legal and administrative monitoring.

4. The evaluation interview

You will most likely have a quick 1st interview, then will be placed in a shelter while you wait for a second interview. Usually, you must stay in the shelter before the next interview.
The 2nd interview will be longer, and you will have to discuss: your identity, your family, your life in your home country (living conditions, education), the reasons you left, your journey to France, your living conditions since your arrival in France, what you plan to do in France.

- Don't forget to bring the documents that prove you are underage. Warning: it is very dangerous to show fake identity papers.
- You can ask an organization (see page 11) to help you retrieve documents from your home country.
- You have the right to an interpreter of your native language.

In some cases, after this evaluation, the ASE can ask for "complementary examinations": a verification of your identity papers (if you have them), and sometimes, a bone age assessment. Note that you should not undergo any medical exams or X-rays if you did not give your consent and if the judge has not allowed it!

5. After the interview

After the interview, the evaluation center is in charge of filling out a report for the ASE. Then, the ASE is in charge of determining whether or not you are underage based on that report.

You should receive an answer from the evaluation centre in the following days. Any rejection must be notified on a document that indicates the reasons behind that rejection. There are two possibilities:

- You are officially recognized as an unaccompanied minor: you will be accommodated (in a shelter, or in an apartment, and in some cases in a foster home), you will be supported by a tutor, you will learn French, go to school or undergo professional training in a specific field of work.
- Or, the ASE does not recognize you as being underage and/or unaccompanied.

6. In case of rejection

If you aren't recognized as a minor, the reasons for the rejection should be explained in a document. It is important for you to keep that document for the next steps. You have the right to appeal the decision before a children's judge. The judge will set up a meeting to hear your case.

- They can also ask for complementary examinations: the verification of your papers and medical exams, with your consent. Once they have reviewed your case, the judge can either recognize you as an unaccompanied minor or confirm the ASE's rejection.
- You have the right to an attorney
 - When waiting for the judge's decision, you will not receive housing or financial aid from the Government.

7. Seeking asylum as a minor

If you are underage, have fled your country in fear for your life, or have been persecuted, you can also apply for asylum in addition to the procedure for recognition that you are underage. Because you are underage, an ad hoc administrator (a legally responsible adult) will be appointed to help you through your asylum application. This person is a professional (sometimes someone who works for an organization like France terre d'asile). If a member of your family is currently in another European Union country, you can ask to join them.

Please note: As a minor, you will not be granted an asylum seekers allowance (ADA). Only the ASE can house unaccompanied minors because you cannot be housed in adult centers adults. For more info on asylum see p 40.

HEALTHCARE

🚨 In a medical emergency, call 15 🚨

General health

● Emergencies: patients who must be treated urgently.

You don't need health insurance or a pass sanitaire to access emergency care.

⚠ Careful, if you don't have health insurance (AME or CSS), go see the social service of the hospital when leaving the emergency room.

It might be better to go to a PASS if it is not an emergency.

● PASS («Permanences d'Accès aux Soins de Santé»): free medical consultation without health insurance. Come very early, there are often many people.

There is a PASS for pharmacies: if you are prescribed medicine you can go to the hospital's pharmacy service.

Important:

● If you don't have health insurance (AME, PUMA, CSS), don't leave the hospital without seeing a social worker.

● It can help to be accompanied by a French speaker.

● The translation website Traducmed (39 languages) may be very useful for medical appointments: www.traducmed.fr

● Medical associations

● ● HÔPITAL SAINT-LOUIS

ACCESS TO RIGHTS

What are my rights?

In France, people without residency permits—known as “undocumented migrants” (“sans papiers”) or “unauthorised” (“situation irrégulière”)—have rights, including the right to healthcare (see page 39) and the right to emergency accommodation (see below).

People with residency permits, known as «legal residents» (“en situation régulière”), have rights that depend on their administrative status:

• Seeking asylum: Asylum seekers have rights related to the procedure. Access to these rights is subject to certain conditions and stops at the end of the asylum procedure (for housing and allowance, see page 32, for work, see page 38)

• Refugees: the right to access social benefits is the same as for French people (benefits and housing see page 35)

• Residency permit: The rights of people who have a ‘récepissé’ (receipt of application for a residence permit) or a residence permit issued by the prefecture depend on the type of residence permit. For example, not everyone has the right to work (see page 38).

Who can help me?

You can ask a social worker to help you with your procedures.

Depending on your situation and the problem you’re facing, these people are different to those responsible for supporting you in your administrative and social procedures.

Social workers often specialise in a specific area (legal aid, healthcare, employment, housing) and/or are focused on a certain group of people (asylum seekers, legal residents under 25 years old, residents of a certain area etc.)

This means it is sometimes necessary to go to several places to get help on different issues. The following pages explain where to get help according to your situation.

EMERGENCY ACCOMMODATION

 115 If you don’t have any housing, the main thing you can do is call the emergency number 115 everyday to ask for temporary accommodation (from one to several nights depending on your situation). Accommodation from 115 is unconditional and free: this means you don’t need a residency permit to get a place.

You can call them 24 hours a day but the wait on the phone can be up to 2 hours or more. The more you call, the more likely you are to get a place. We advise you to call very early in the morning.

The management of the 115 is split between the French departments. Your calls are geo-located, which means that if you call the Paris line, the 115 will ask you to always call from Paris in the future so you can be assisted there. If you call from another department, the 115 in that department will handle your case.

To apply for longer-term accommodation, go to your town’s social services or to an organisation that can make an SIAO (Service Intégré d’Accueil et d’Orientation) application for you (list on page 16).

Unaccompanied minors:

- If you haven’t been assessed: You have a right to unconditional accommodation “provisional care” for the duration of your assessment. To get this, go to an assessment centre (list on page 8).
- If you have already been assessed: Presenting your rejection notice entitles you to accommodation for adults. You can then call 115 and state your situation.

IF YOU ARE ARRESTED

If you are a victim of or witness any police abuse:

Contact the Collective Access to Law to report any situations of physical or verbal violence, expulsions, confiscations or destruction of property.

<https://collectifacesaudroit.org/202-2/>

You may also be referred to lawyers, doctors, or psychologists.

or contact this number 07 67 29 36 66 (text message and WhatsApp) to send photos and videos of evacuations and/or police checks to “l’Observatoire des Libertés Publiques et la Ligue des droits de l’Homme”.

You can get arrested during an identity check – to confirm whether you have the right to stay in France – and/if they suspect you might have broken the law.

If you do not have papers and you are arrested, you risk facing an “Obligation to Leave French Territory” (OQTF) and, in some cases, a house arrest or being locked up in an Immigration Detention Center: Centre de Rétention Administrative (CRA).

Documents and information that you must always have on you:

- The documents regarding your procedure (proof of your asylum application “récepissé”, your request for a resident permit...)
- Proof of “domiciliation”, residency or accommodation
- Proof of health insurance, if you have it (PUMA, CSS, AME), any documents linked to your health coverage and the contact details of your doctor.

Your rights in a detention centre

- You can make calls from the CRA's public phones or with your own mobile phone that is without a camera. Mobile phones with cameras will be confiscated.
- Your friends, relatives and organization members have the right to visit you. They are allowed to bring you clothes, non-perishable goods (ex: biscuits, sodas), documents and money.

If a friend or relative is in a detention centre (CRA), you can contact the organization on-site.

- Ask for help from the OFII with your Voluntary Return to go back to your home country. In certain countries, reinsertion assistance is offered in your home country: <http://www.retourvolontaire.fr/>

How long can you be detained for?

The maximum length for your detention is 90 days, during which you can file two appeals for your release:

1. Appealing against your detention.
The Judge of Liberties and Detention (JLD) has 48 hours to decide whether or not to extend your detention.

2. Appealing against the deportation decision.
The Administrative Court will be asked to revoke the deportation decision (only if that decision is recent, less than 48 hours).

Depending on the judge's decision, you may be released, or your detention could be extended.

For someone to be deported, the French State must be in possession of the individual's valid passport or a "consular pass".

- If you didn't provide your passport during the identity check and you refuse to see the consular authorities from your country, it will be more difficult for the French State to issue you a "laisser-passer" (transfer pass): this will only complicate your deportation.
⚠️ Careful: if you refuse to meet with the consular authorities, you can receive a short prison sentence (1 to 4 months).
- If you falsified your identity: the police will not be able to know what country you are from. This also complicates your deportation.
⚠️ Note that, if the police realizes you falsified your identity, you can receive a short prison sentence (1 month to 3 years).

If you get sentenced to prison time, at the end of your time, you risk being locked up at the CRA again.

The maximum 90-day detention will start over.

If you're released

If your situation is irregular, at your release, you might be issued an order to be deported (Obligation to Leave French Territory – OQTF) and sometimes you can be barred from coming back on French territory (interdiction de retour sur le territoire Français – IRTF). This order sometimes comes with a house arrest.

⚠️ Note that, in most cases, you only have 48 hours from the time you signed the paper to appeal the decision.

As soon as you are released, contact a lawyer or an organization to seek help (page 11).

If you have been insulted or mistreated by the police, you can file a complaint.
The police cannot prevent you from filing a complaint, even if you do not have papers. If you have been physically assaulted, you can see a doctor to get a medical certificate that proves your injuries (page 11).

If you have been transferred to an Immigration Detention Centre (CRA)

The objective of the Immigration Detention Center (CRA), where you will be locked up, is to send you back to your home country, to the country responsible for your asylum application (Dublin procedure), or to the country that granted you protection (remise Schengen).

As soon as you arrive at the CRA, immediately ask to see the organization that is working there: ASSFAM-Groupe SOS, Forum Réfugiés, France Terre d'Asile, La Cimade).

Those organizations will help you file your appeal and will give you information on the various steps you need to take while you are being detained.

If there are no organizations present (Sundays, public holidays, etc.), contact an outside organization (page 11).

- Any document regarding your family situation in France (ex: your child's school registration certificate, marriage certificate...)

- A phone card and/or a phone without a camera.
- The phone number of someone you trust: a friend, a member of an organisation or a lawyer to be notified IMMEDIATELY if you are arrested or detained.

Keep copies of your documents in different places (a friend's house, the offices of an organization) and online (email, etc...).

Never give anyone your passport (even if it's expired) because that can lead to your deportation. However, the absence of a passport can be used as an argument to place you in an Immigration Detention Center.

Your rights in a police station

You can be detained for a maximum of 24h for an identity check / a maximum of 48h if they suspect you have broken the law.

You have 4 basic rights. You can ask:

- For an interpreter of your native language.
Make sure to ask for the dialect you speak best, even if it is less common: Arabic, Sudanese, Kurdish Sorani, Senegalese Fulani...
- To see a doctor
- To see a lawyer
- To phone a friend or an organisation you trust. Give them the details of your arrest (where, when) in order for them to help you.

⚠️ Do NOT sign any documents you don't understand. Ask for an interpreter!

DOMICILIATION

What is a “domiciliation”?

DOMICILIATION is a postal address where you can receive your mail from the French administration. It is therefore an essential step to benefit from your social rights. Your domiciliation address could be different to your accommodation address.

For asylum seekers

Your region's SPADA is responsible for helping you with your social and administrative procedures. They should also give you a domiciliation at the request of the OFII. When you visit the “single central reception desk” (GUDA), they will give you an appointment to get your domiciliation address. This option is only available to asylum seekers.

⚠ Please note that only a domiciliation approved by the prefecture is accepted to renew the asylum application certificate, i.e. a domiciliation:

- In the SPADA
- In your accommodation/hostel
- Or your own home address, only if you or a close relative (parents, brother or sister) is a tenant. A certificate of accommodation from a friend will not be accepted.

If you don't or no longer have an address, go to your department's OFII and ask to be directed to the relevant SPADA.

Even if you are going through the Dublin procedure and the prefecture labels you “on the run”, the SPADA must keep your domiciliation.

For refugees

People who are granted international protection (refugee status, subsidiary protection or stateless status) have the right to remain domiciled and supported at the SPADA for 6 months after receiving a decision.

However, you will be asked to find another domiciliation address quickly before your domiciliation at the SPADA is closed (page 23)

- Either the person housing you agrees to provide you with appropriate proof of housing (signed, dated proof of housing, a copy or their ID card or residency permit and supporting housing documents);
- Or you can prove a link with a municipality and go to its CCAS (see ‘For other situations’);
- Or if you can't prove a link with a municipality or its CCAS refused you, you can go to an organisation recognised by the prefecture. (A list of authorised organisations in Ile de France is available here: <https://bit.ly/4tUPqeA>).

For other situations

A domiciliation address is always essential to carry out certain administrative procedures, in particular, regularisation procedures. Some even offer social support.

If you aren't an asylum seeker, administrative domiciliation will be guaranteed by the organisation that houses you, or, failing this, a CCAS or an authorised association. In effect, if you can prove a link to a municipality, you can request a domiciliation from the Community Social Action Centre (CCAS) in the town you live in.

Whether you're in a legal situation or not, the link with the municipality is established if:

- Your child goes to school in a municipality
- You work in a municipality
- Your close family lives in the municipality
- You have social or medical support or if you are benefitting from a professional integration programme
- You have undertaken procedures with institutional or associative structures in the municipality

There isn't a CCAS in Paris so you have to make an appointment at Paris Adresse (see page 23) to get a domiciliation. You will then be entitled to a follow-up appointment at a social work centre (Permanence social d'accueil, PSA).

SCHOOL ENROLLMENT FOR CHILDREN

From school to high school

In France, all children under 16 have the right to go to school. Whatever your status or your parent's status of residence in France, school is free: all children have access to school and are obliged to go.

You need to contact the city hall (“mairie”) closest to where you live. If you encounter difficulties, you should contact a legal aid service (see page 11).

GOING BACK TO UNIVERSITY

Whatever your situation is (without papers/ documentation, asylum seeker, refugee or beneficiary of subsidiary protection), you have the right to study/resume your studies in France. It is important to know that the university is not supposed to check if you have a residence permit.

To qualify to apply you must:

1. have your baccalaureate
2. have a sufficient level of French (B2 for a bachelor and C1 for a master). Registration details (and chances of acceptance) depend on the university, the type of training/education, your status and the level of entry you are applying for (L1, L2, master...).

⚠ You must pay attention to the calendar; certain procedures are required as of November to start classes the following September.

French classes are offered in certain universities to prepare for your studies.

€ Students who have a refugee status or are beneficiaries of subsidiary protection have access to scholarships based on social criteria and access to university residences managed by CROUS.

You can find more information on resuming your studies here:

<https://uniondesetudiantsexiles.org/archives/category/a-propos-des-etudes> in English, Arabic and French

Registering as a student in exile can be difficult, lengthy and costly. Some organisations can help you with the application.

- You can ask any questions you may have on this Facebook group: “Studies in France for migrants and refugees”
- Or contact UniR (For statutory refugees, beneficiaries of subsidiary protection and asylum seekers only):

State Medical Aid : “Aide Médicale d’État” (AME)

For people without legal residence papers

The AME covers 100% of any medical care for which it has given approval.

Conditions to meet in order to get the AME:

- Having no legal residency papers nor any documents as proof of resident status (no valid residency permit, asylum application receipt, nor documents showing that you are in the process of applying for a valid residency permit) OR
- Having lived in France for at least 3 uninterrupted months without residence permit
- Having a limited source of income that doesn't go over a given threshold.

The application needs to be deposited to the Caisse Primaire d'Assurance Maladie (CPAM) of your place of residence. You can get help in assembling the file from one of these institutions:

- Communal social action centres (CCAS) of your place of residence
- Day centres (page 16)
- Hospital social service (page 18)
- Organisations (page 11)

The CPAM should inform you of its decision within 2 months at the latest; if the application is accepted, you can obtain your AME card which is valid for 1 year, starting from the beginning of the application procedure.

Note that: renewal is not automatic and you must fill out and submit a new file 2 months before the expiry date written on the AME card.

ACCESS TO HEALTHCARE

Emergency care

While waiting to be granted the health protection best suited to your situation, you can use the Free Medical Access Points (Permanences d'Accès aux Soins de Santé -PASS) found in certain hospitals (see page 18). You will be taken care of by doctors and have access to free medication.

You can also get consultations and advice from medical organisations (see page 18).

Universal Health protection (PUMA - Formerly called CMU)

For people with legal residence papers

If you are an asylum seeker who has been in France for 3 or more months, you can benefit from health insurance through Universal Health Protection (PUMA) and complementary Health Coverage (CSS) by presenting the asylum application that is given to you at the single central reception desk (GUDA). This will allow you to access free healthcare and hospitalisation for you, your spouse and your children. You may have to pay medical fees upfront and be reimbursed after.

You can ask for help from the institution housing you, or the institution in charge of accompanying you throughout the review of your asylum application (SPADA). You can also ask for help from organisations (see page 11) or from hospital social services at a hospital that's already treated you.

For young people

Youth service centers called “missions locales” provide one-to-one support to youth aged 16-25, to help with social integration and finding employment:

www.mission-locale.fr/annuaire/agence/mission-locale-de-paris

You can also complete a 6-12 month long civic service (service civique) in a general interest field, earning 580€ to 690€ each month, until the eve of your 26th birthday.

www.service-civique.gouv.fr

OPENING A BANK ACCOUNT

You can open a “livret A” account at the Postal Bank (La Banque Postale). The Livret A is a savings account in which you can deposit and withdraw cash money, and make bank transfers.

You will be given a bank identity statement (RIB): this document may be useful for certain administrative procedures.

Everyone has the right to open a bank account. If you are an asylum seeker, the SPADA or the association of your accommodation centre can help you organize a meeting with the bank.

If you have any questions, you can go to an association for help: see page 11

To open a Livret A, you need:

- to be over 18 years old,
- an identity document (asylum seeker attestation (récépissé), passport...),
- a domiciliation attestation,
- 2€: the minimum opening deposit.

You can only withdraw cash with la Banque Postale cash withdrawal machines.

EMPLOYMENT

For asylum seekers

As an asylum seeker, from the 1st of March 2019, you will only be allowed to start working 6 months after having started your asylum procedure, and only if you haven't yet received an answer from the OFPRA.

If you get an offer of employment when your asylum application attestation (‘récépissé’) is still valid, your future employer must submit the application to the competent Directorate.

Otherwise, when you apply to renew your expired certificate, you must apply for a work permit at the prefecture.

You will need to give them a valid 3-month long or longer work contract established on a special form, or an offer of employment (stating your function, the day you start working and your name) as well as other documents concerning the company.

Be aware that you cannot change employers because that work permit is only valid for the job offer submitted to the prefecture.

This authorization will only be valid as long as your asylum application attestation (‘récépissé’) is valid. This work permit can be renewed any time during the period you are waiting for the decision from the OFPRA.

For refugees

Once you have been granted refugee status or subsidiary protection, you are allowed to legally work in France, with no conditions.

Contact organisations to get help in your search for employment.

PROCEDURES

You are a foreigner and wish to stay in France: in order to stay on French territory without risking expulsion, you should apply for a residency permit. You have various possibilities (asylum claim, applying for a residency permit) which depend on your personal situation.

The information in this guide will help you understand the steps to follow. It will however never replace the help from a specialised lawyer who will be able to examine your personal situation. What may have worked for someone you know will not necessarily work for you.

See page 11 to find social and legal help.

WHAT IS ASYLUM?

Seeking asylum means you are asking for a country's protection because you are in danger as you have been persecuted and threatened in your country of origin due to your religion, nationality, political opinion, race or social group.

The asylum application process determines whether you are eligible for protection from the French state: refugee status, subsidiary protection and, more rarely, protection for stateless persons (those without nationality). A person granted protection is entitled to:

- to live on French territory (residency permit)
- To get a residency permit
- To work legally
- To request to have your family come to join you in France under the family reunification scheme.

If you have not been persecuted in your home country, it will be difficult to get asylum in France.

See page 11 to find social and legal help from a specialised organisation.

For more information about the different steps of the procedure, see page 44.

RESIDENCE PERMITS

Residency permits are another way, other than seeking asylum, to stay in France legally.

There are different types of residency permits according to your situation:

- The healthcare residency permit is for sick foreigners who cannot be treated in their countries of origin.
- The employment residency permit is for people who have been working in France for several years and who wish to regularise their situation, student residence permit for foreigners who wish to study in France...
- The student residency permits is for foreigners who wish to study in France.

Other residency permits exist. They are individuel and can vary according to your nationality. Every situation is different. See p59.

Applying for a residency permit is a complicated procedure. It is therefore very important to seek advice from a lawyer before you start your application.

You should go to a specialised legal organisation that will help you evaluate your personal situation and fill in your application (see page 11).

Unaccompanied minors

Go to the evaluation services (see page 8) to be recognized as an unaccompanied minor. This will grant you the protection of the Child Social Services (Aide Sociale à l'Enfance) which will give you access to housing, education and healthcare until you turn 18.

You can still ask for asylum and make an appointment at the SPADA.

However, if you wish to ask for asylum, you must as a minor go through a specific procedure, so be sure to ask help from specialist organisation (see page11)

FIRST RECEPTION

As soon as you arrive in France you must go to a 'First Reception Centre for Asylum Seekers' (SPADA) reception centre to start your asylum application.

In Paris and Île-de-France, you have to call this number to make an appointment at the SPADA AS SOON AS YOU ARRIVE. Once 90 days have passed since your arrival, it will be more difficult to seek asylum:

 01 42 500 900

You can call from Monday to Friday from 10am to 4:30pm. Calls to this number are not free!

If no one answers when you call, keep a record of your call history in your phone so you can prove you tried making an appointment several times.

When you call, wait for the language options so you can choose yours.

There is a SPADA in every region (Paris, Bobigny, Nanterre...). Even if you call in Paris, you may receive an appointment somewhere other than Paris. At the end of your call, you will receive a confirmation text message with the date, time and address of the SPADA appointment.

Families: go to the SPADA with EVERY MEMBER OF THE FAMILY, including those who have already been granted asylum in France.

SPADA appointment:

1. During the appointment an officer will give you information about asylum in France and ask for information about yourself. You will have to give:

- Personal information (name, age, family situation) Please note: if you have provided your fingerprints in another European country using a different identity, please ensure that you either use the same identity or explain why you provided a different one.
- Your date of departure from your country and date of arrival in France. Careful: if you say you entered France more than 90 days ago, your file will be processed with the Fast-Track Procedure, which is not ideal, see p.44.
- The route you took to get to France. Please note: if you have not provided your fingerprints in any European country, it is not in your best interests to mention the countries you have travelled through in Europe (to avoid being subject to the Dublin Regulation).
- The language you wish to use during the entire asylum process. Even if you feel at ease with the French language, it is in your best interest to ask for a translator in your native language, to give you more time to answer.

2. They will ask you to fill in your information on the computer in their office. This information will be shared with the prefecture (French administration centre). Any false information might lead to your file being processed using the unfavourable Fast-Track Procedure. (see page 44)

3. They will take a photo of you and give you a «convocation» letter to go to the «single central reception desk» (GUDA). At this single central reception desk, you will be able to register your asylum application.

THE ASYLUM APPLICATION

All the information you need will be indicated on your convocation letter inviting you to your obligatory appointment at the GUDA (Guichet Unique pour Demandeurs d'Asile - Single counter for asylum seekers). You will have the address, date and time of your appointment.

Be there on time! If you arrive late to your appointment, you will not be accepted.

Be aware that you might spend half a day to a whole day waiting there.

At the GUDA, you will find:

- The Prefecture counter to register your asylum claim
- The OFII counter which will evaluate your vulnerability during an interview (accommodation and medical state)

PLEASE NOTE: these are two separate appointments; do not leave until you have spoken to an official from the Prefecture AND an official from the OFII

DO NOT LOSE THE DOCUMENTS given to you by the prefecture and the OFII. Take photos, photocopy them and be sure to keep copies (paper and digital) in different places.

The asylum procedure is for people who are in danger in their home countries. It is possible to ask for a residence permit for another reason (health issues, family ties...)

If you wish to start your residence permit procedure at the same time as your asylum claim, you have 2 months from your visit to the one-stop asylum service (GUDA) to do so. 3 months for residence permits for medical treatment. Once that delay has passed the prefecture could refuse to register your residence permit claim. However, this depends on the individual case, as this time limit may be waived in certain circumstances. Go to a specialised organisation for more information (see page 11)

What to do when you arrive at the «one-stop asylum service» (GUDA)?

1. Go to the prefecture counter to register your asylum claim

An officer in charge of registering your asylum claim will:

- Take your fingerprints,
- Check whether you have already applied for asylum in France or in another country of the European Union
- Give you a booklet to guide you through the procedure in your native language,
- Ask you to choose the language you want to speak throughout the whole procedure. Once you have chosen your language, it will be difficult to ask for another one during the procedure. You can however switch to French at anytime
- Give you proof of your asylum application (a récépissé) stating which procedure you will be going through: normal procedure, fast-track procedure or Dublin procedure page 44). Please check carefully that the information on this application is correct and matches what you provided to GUDA.
- Give you an OFPRA file. It is very important to fill it out properly. Carefully read the information on page 46 and ask a specialist organisation for help (see page 11).
- Give you a username and a password to access your OFPRA personal space online: <https://bit.ly/3PUapMO>

The distribution of OFPRA documents is digitalised for new asylum seekers. It means that the OFPRA will give you the reception notice of your file, your appointment date and the answer to your asylum request through your online personal space: <https://www.usager.ofpra.gouv.fr/ofpra/user/login>

For more information regarding the digitalisation of this process, please see: <https://watizat.org/dematerialisation-ofpra/>

You can apply for a dispensation from the digitalisation of the OFPRA notifications, especially for people without housing (who do not have access to a computer).

⚠ Careful: the opening of your mail on your online personal space marks the beginning of the appeal timeframe.

Find help and access to a computer at the SPADA for the first access to your online personal space.

2. Go to the OFII's counter

What is OFII?

Office Français d'Immigration et d'Intégration (French Office for Immigration and Integration.) The OFII is responsible for the reception of asylum seekers in France and for accompanying them throughout their asylum application procedure (providing financial aid and accommodation)

An OFII officer will:

- Ask you about your personal situation to see if you have specific needs. (for example if you're disabled, pregnant, if you need to see a psychologist...)
- Give you a form called "Offer of support from the national reception centre" (In French "Offre de prise en charge au titre du dispositif national d'accueil") offering aid from the OFII. This will allow you to get accommodation and financial benefits (ADA). To get this help offered by the OFII, sign the form by ticking the box that says «Oui, j'accepte de bénéficier des conditions matérielles d'accueil» (Yes, I agree to accept the material reception conditions)

⚠ You cannot benefit from the financial allowance (ADA) without agreeing to the accommodation offer. It's a package deal: you can either benefit from housing and financial benefits, or you get nothing.

The OFII can send you to an accommodation/shelter in a region that is different to the one where you applied for asylum. The OFII will provide you with a transportation ticket and the SPADA or accommodation address that you have to go to within 5 days. You will have to remain in this area throughout the whole asylum procedure.

You won't have access to accommodation or financial benefits (ADA) if you refuse to go. However, the OFII should direct you to a SPADA in Île-de-France.

If you accept the regional allocation but don't go there, you must warn the OFII. You won't have the right to access housing or financial benefits (ADA). An organisation can help you ask to transfer your domiciliation in Île-de-France (page 11).

Be careful, if you agree to go to another region but you return to Île-de-France even after a few days, you will lose housing and financial benefits as well as a domiciliation in a SPADA in Île-de-France. An organisation will be able to help you better understand the situation and renew your asylum claim (see page 11).

3. Getting a registered postal address (domiciliation) at a SPADA

After your appointment with the «one-stop asylum service» (GUDA), you will have to return to the SPADA to get a registered postal address (in French this is called a «domiciliation»).

This step is mandatory to take advantage of the «conditions matérielles d'accueil» or CMA and submit your OFPRA application.

Careful, your "domiciliation" must be in the same region as the prefecture handling your asylum application.

If the OFII has already directed you to another region, your "domiciliation" will definitely be transferred to that region, even if you refuse to be accommodated there.

It is possible to appeal and request that France be responsible for your asylum application and France not to transfer you. (Time you have to appeal: 48 hours, from the time that you receive the transfer order if you are under house arrest, otherwise 15 days). Your chances of winning the appeal depend on your personal situation (health, family, countries through which you have travelled...) but they are generally slim.

If you lose the appeal, you will have to wait 6 extra months to be able to apply for asylum in France, during which you still risk being transferred.

Go to a specialist legal organisation as soon as possible to get help and advice if you want to appeal.

If you haven't been transferred to the country in charge of your asylum application within the transfer period (6 months or more depending on your situation), France should normally become the country in charge of your application if all goes well.

Careful, every Dublin procedure is different, what may have worked for one person might not work for you.

If you have been transferred but have returned to France, you must re-register your asylum application at the prefecture. This may involve certain risks: please seek advice from a legal aid office (see p.11).

If you didn't show up to your Prefecture or OFII appointments or if you refuse to be transferred, you risk being considered «on the run». However, you can justify your absence (medical appointment, illness, etc.) by provide evidence.

What is «domiciliation»?

In order to carry out all their administrative procedures, asylum seekers need a registered mailing address. This allows the person to receive letters from French administration offices like OFPRA or CNDA and to access their rights.

Domiciliation is only valid while the asylum process is underway.

The SPADA is the organization that set up your GUDA appointment. When this organisation gives you a registered postal address, you will start to benefit from their social and legal support: access to health insurance, emergency housing, reduced cost for transportation, asylum application support...

THE ASYLUM PROCEDURES

Normal procedure

Your asylum application will be examined in the normal way by OFPRA (Office Français de Protection des Réfugiés et Apatrides - French Office for the Protection of Asylum Seekers and Stateless People).

You are entitled to specific social rights for asylum seekers (social security), financial and housing assistance (as long as you have agreed to OFII's benefit form- see above)

You have 21 days to fill in the OFPRA form that you were given at the GUDA and to go to the post office to send it to the OFPRA with all of the requested documents.

If your file is complete, OFPRA will send you a confirmation letter. This letter enables you to renew your asylum claim (récépissé) for another 9 months.

⚠ Renewing your asylum application confirmation letter (récépissé) can take a few days, so be sure to go to the prefecture a few days before the expiry date with a recent proof of domiciliation.

If your asylum application confirmation letter (récépissé) expires, you run the risk of getting arrested during an identity check (see page 29)

Fast-Track Procedure

This procedure is not ideal:

The time they take to examine your file will be shorter and you may not be able to benefit from material help (financial support and housing).

You should ask the Prefecture to give you a document explaining why your application was assigned to the fast-track procedure. This document must be put in your OFPRA file, as it is essential to your application.

Follow the advice given for the normal procedure to renew your asylum application confirmation letter (the récépissé).

However, in the fast-track procedure, the récépissé is only valid for 6 months, and must be renewed every 6 months throughout the procedure.

Possible reasons why you have been placed on a Fast-Track Procedure:

- If you refuse to have your fingerprints taken or if they cannot be read,
- If you hid or gave false information about yourself or your journey,
- If you have received an order to leave French territory (OQTF),
- If you have already applied for asylum or are applying for reconsideration (page 50),
- If you sent your application more than 90 days after your arrival in France and your justification has been rejected. The Prefecture will consider your situation non-urgent

- If you come from a country that is considered safe: Albania, Armenia, Bosnia-Herzegovina, Cape Verde, Georgia, India, Kosovo, Macedonia, Moldova, Mongolia, Montenegro, Serbia.

- If the prefecture considers your presence to be a serious threat to public order.

If you think that your application should be assessed using the normal procedure, you can tell the OFPRA (in your personal narrative (récit) or during the interview) why you disagree.

The OFPRA can put you in normal procedure. If the OFPRA doesn't move you, you can take your arguments to the CNDA. You can also make this request if you come from Benin, Ghana or Senegal and registered your asylum claim before July 2021.

Dublin procedure

If the Prefecture decides to process your file in the Dublin Procedure, it may mean that your fingerprints were found in another European country where you already sought asylum, or that you obtained a visa in another European country. That country is responsible for your asylum application.

The Prefecture will therefore ask that country to take you back in order to examine your application there.

While you wait for the country's answer, you are allowed to stay in France and should be granted access to asylum seekers' assistance such as the asylum seekers' financial help (ADA) and social health insurance (AME). The Prefecture will arrange various appointments that you must attend if you wish to continue to be eligible for housing and financial aid.

Careful: you will be given a transfer order during one of these appointments at the Prefecture. From this point onwards, you risk being sent to a detention centre and transferred to the country in charge of the asylum application. The French state has 6 months after the date that the country agreed to take you back to transfer you there.

2. The interview

The interview with OFPRA is the most important part of your asylum application.

OFPRA can tell you the date of your interview by email or SMS text message.

You went to the GUDA: You will receive your notification through your OFPRA online personal space, once your asylum application has been confirmed. Check every week for any updates on your file. The date, hour and details of the interview will be updated on your online personal space, except for requests for review.

⚠ Careful, OFPRA is now organising interviews in two different locations in Fontenay-sous-Bois or Paris. Read your letter carefully to check the address of your meeting.

Who will be at the interview?

These people have to remain neutral and confidential:

- A protection officer from OFPRA (this person is not from the police.)
- An interpreter if you do not speak French. Double-check they correctly speak your language. If you don't understand the interpreter or think that they are not neutral, you should tell the protection officer.
- You can ask for the presence of a lawyer or a legally authorized representative from an organisation as a silent witness. They will be authorized to speak at the end of the interview.

What happens during the interview?

The protection officer will ask questions based on the information you gave in your OFPRA file. However, everything you say during the interview will be more important than what you wrote in the file for the final decision.

We highly advise you not to add fake elements or to pay non-professional people to translate your story. This could be very harmful for your asylum application. Specialized organizations can help you write your personal narrative in French for free.

If you have made any errors in your personal narrative, you can ask to correct them during the interview.

If you need help with your OFPRA file:

You can ask the SPADA* to help you fill in the document and write in French. (* The SPADA is the organisation that can give you a postal address if you don't have a place to live.)

Other organisations can help you with your OFPRA file (see page 11-12)

Even if you get help from another organization or a lawyer, carefully read the information given by this guide regarding the OFPRA file: the information you give in your file is very important for your asylum application.

How and when should you send your file?

You must send the file to OFPRA within 21 days from the date you received it at the prefecture.

Send your file to this address:

OFPRA
201 rue Carnot
94136 Fontenay-sous-Bois

Send the file from the Post Office as a registered letter with acknowledgment of receipt (lettre recommandée avec accusé de réception) to prove you have sent the file if it gets lost.

Or deposit your file in person at the OFPRA (but you will not immediately be given a receipt proving that you submitted it («dépôt de dossier»).

We advise you to keep copies of all your documents (file, story, enclosed documents) and the proof that OFPRA received your file.

We therefore highly recommend you get help from a specialised organisation or a lawyer to write your story.

ADVICE: Keep copies of all of your documents. Take photos of all of your documents with your phone and contact organisations or libraries that can help you photocopy the whole file.

You must send OFPRA file to the OFPRA within 21 days from the date you received it!

How to fill in the OFPRA file?

1. It must be written in French
2. You (the asylum seeker) must sign the file
3. It should include the following documents:
 - Two official identity photos
 - A copy of your certificate of asylum application (récépissé)
 - A photocopy of your ID card or passport if you have one or any other state documents if you have them.
4. Fill in your personal information as well as your family's information (name, birthdate and place of birth...) PLEASE NOTE: Make sure you provide the correct information to avoid any problems later on when applying for family reunification.

5. Indicate the language you wish to use for the interview (see page 44),

6. Write your story in French, explaining all of the reasons you left your country to ask for asylum in France.

Your personal narrative is the first way to let the OFPRA know about your fears in detail, so give precise and coherent information. It must include the names of people and places as well as specific dates.

Do not hesitate to add material evidence (photos, ID...) to back up your story and testify to the persecution you went through.

If you are considered on the run, you will no longer be entitled to your asylum seekers rights (housing and ADA financial aid). The time limit for a transfer will be extended to 18 months. At the end of that period, France will become responsible for your asylum application.

Careful: It is very complicated to calculate these delays. Ask a lawyer for advice.

Whatever happens, go to a Free Legal Aid office with all your documents as soon as possible to get more information about your specific situation in the Dublin Procedure (see page 11).

OFPRA FILE AND INTERVIEW

What is OFPRA?

L'Office Français de Protection des Réfugiés et Apatrides (French Office for the Protection of Refugees and Stateless People).

It is a public institution responsible for reviewing asylum applications and making the decision to grant (or not) International protection. The decision taken by OFPRA can then only be reconsidered by appeal before the National Court for Asylum (CNDA)

1. The OFPRA file

⚠ The OFPRA decision depends on your file and interview. Carefully read the next pages to fill in your file and prepare your interview.

Your personal narrative must convince OFPRA you really are in danger in your country and you can't return for fear of persecution, torture, or death.

1. The first part of the interview will be about your civil situation: the protection officer will ask you about your identity and your family situation. It's important to confirm that the information is complete and correct, to ensure the civil information about your family and the spelling of everyone's names is correct. Do not leave any family members out.

2. The second part will be about your statement and your fear for your safety. You will be able to talk about the events that led you to leave your country. You will be asked for further details about the events (dates, places...). You must give as much detail as possible in your explanations, and focus on what happened to you personally.

3. At the end of the interview, you will be asked to explain what you presently fear if you return to your country.

An interview usually lasts 1.5 hours, but it can last anywhere from 45 minutes to several hours. You have the right to ask to take a break to get a drink or to go to the toilet.

How to prepare for the interview?

Your interview is confidential: you can speak freely.

It is important to speak as naturally and spontaneously as possible.

Don't learn your story by heart. Try to detail what you went through by trying to remember the chronological order of events, dates, places, people and what role they had everything that could help the protection officer understand your story.

If you don't fully understand the interpreter or you're not sure they fully understand you, bring it up as soon as possible.

Stick to the facts: if you don't know something or if you have forgotten, say so. If you don't understand a question or if you have any doubts, don't hesitate to let the protection officer know.

If you suffer from memory loss, that you regularly have nightmares and that reliving these events is very difficult, let the protection officer know about your situation. You may be suffering from post-traumatic stress. You can get help from a doctor to talk about it and get a medical certificate to give to OFPRA (see page 22)

How and when will you receive the decision?

OFPRA usually makes a decision within 3 to 4 months, though it may take longer than expected. If this is the case, OFPRA will send you a letter to inform you about the delay.

You might be called for a second interview.

You went to the GUDA: You will receive your notification through your OFPRA online personal space, except for requests for review. You won't receive post. A text or email will be sent to you to notify you but it is very important to check your online profile weekly.

⚠ When the OFPRA notify you of their decision on your online profile, you have 15 days to read it. After 15 days, the OFPRA will assume that you have read it. If you are rejected, the time to request a lawyer with legal aid or the time to make an appeal may have already passed. The time and date you were notified is very important if you wish to appeal!

3. The decision

OFPRA will decide if France must protect you: you can be granted refugee status or a subsidiary protection; your application can also be rejected.

1. If OFPRA grants you refugee status («statut de réfugié»): Go to the prefecture with the approval letter to get a renewable residency permit valid for 10 years.

2. If the OFPRA grants you subsidiary protection («protection subsidiaire»): Go to the prefecture to get a residency permit (carte de séjour) valid for 4 years and then maybe also a residency permit (carte de résident) valid for 10 years. You can appeal this decision (see next pages, same process). Appealing the decision won't make you lose the subsidiary protection.

If you have been granted refugee status or subsidiary protection read page 55 for the next steps.

3. If the OFPRA rejects your application: You can appeal the decision before the National Court for Asylum (CNDA) (see page 50).

⚠ If you have been put into a Fast-Track procedure (review, safe country of origin), you might lose your right to stay once the OFPRA has rejected your application.

⚠ You may be required to leave France if your asylum application is definitively rejected.

If you are in a Fast-Track procedure, you might be sent back to your country, even during the CNDA appeal. In that case, go straight to a free legal aid office or lawyer for advice (see page 11)

MAKING AN APPEAL TO THE CNDA

What is the CNDA?

Cour Nationale du Droit d'Asile:

The National Court for Asylum is an administrative jurisdiction. It's Judges review any appeal you can make against OFPRA's decision to reject your asylum application. They closely examine the arguments presented by both parties (the OFPRA and the asylum seeker), and then make their decision. The CNDA can overturn the OFPRA's decision and grant the asylum seeker refugee status or subsidiary protection.

They can also reject the appeal. In this case the asylum seeker is denied the right to benefit from asylum in France.

If OFPRA has rejected your asylum application you can appeal that decision before the CNDA.

How to lodge an appeal with the CNDA?

The appeal must be presented as a letter, accompanied by enclosed documents if necessary, and must be written in French. This letter, must include:

- Your civil status and personal information (name, date and place of birth, nationality, address...)
- Arguments to refute the elements of the OFPRA's decision that you want to contest. Clearly explain the reasons why you think OFPRA was wrong about your case.

The appeal must reach the CNDA within one month from the date you received the decision from OFPRA ; this means within one month from the day you read the decision sent to your OFPRA online profile.

Appealing to the CNDA isn't easy.

We advise you to ask for help from specialised organisation (see page 11) or from a lawyer (see page 50).

You have 3 options:

1. Ask for a free lawyer to help you by applying for legal aid («aide juridictionnelle»)
2. Hire a private lawyer
3. Go through the appeal by yourself (strongly discouraged)

1. Free lawyer

Be careful, you have very little time to get legal aid from a free lawyer: you should apply within 15 days of the notification of OFPRA's decision.

You only have 15 days to officially request free legal aid otherwise you will have to prepare your defense by yourself. This is not recommended.

If you applied for legal aid, the lawyer (who will receive a copy of your letters) will assist you through all the procedures linked to the appeal.

Two ways of applying for a free lawyer:

- Get help from SPADA, Centre d'Accueil pour demandeur.euses d'Asile (CADA) or from a specialized organisation: Go to SPADA, CADA or a legal aid office for help (see page 11)

- Ask for a free lawyer (legal aid) by yourself: Write a letter with your signature, specifying your civil status, your OFPRA file number and a copy of OFPRA's decision. Send the letter as a registered letter with acknowledgment of receipt (like the OFPRA file) to this address :

Cour nationale du droit d'asile
Bureau d'aide juridictionnelle
35 rue Cuvier,
93558 Montreuil Cedex

Or by fax: ☎ 01 48 18 43 11

Or you can drop off your letter at the address yourself.

If you find a lawyer in another way, they must send a letter to the CNDA to let them know they are in charge of your file.

If you apply for a free lawyer within 15 days after receiving your letter of rejection by the OFPRA, the one-month period for sending the appeal will be interrupted until you are granted a lawyer.

You will receive two letters within 15 days:

- The registration of your request for a lawyer.
- The agreement to your request, with the name and address of your lawyer.

Once you've received this letter, your lawyer will have a very short period of time to appeal!

Your lawyer will need to meet you and listen to your story to prepare your case against OFPRA's decision.

Get in contact with your lawyer as soon as possible! Lawyers are usually very busy but don't hesitate to make an appointment. If you cannot make an appointment with your lawyer, ask an organisation for help (see page 11).

2. A private lawyer

You will have to find and pay for this private lawyer by yourself. Make sure your solicitor specialises in immigration law.

With the help of your lawyer, you must send your appeal to the CNDA within one month after the receipt of the OFPRA's rejection.

If you cannot make an appointment with the lawyer you've paid for, ask an organisation for help (see page 11).

3. Appeal without a lawyer

⚠ This is not recommended.

You will be defending your case to the CNDA without the help of a lawyer.

If you wish to appeal and defend your case by yourself, read the previous information to know the important elements of an appeal.

What happens after you have sent your appeal?

The CNDA processes your file

- You should receive your appeal registration letter from the CNDA (lettre d'enregistrement du recours à la CNDA), proving that your appeal has been registered.
- You should then receive a letter scheduling your public hearing (lettre de convocation) at the CNDA. In French it is called "convocation à la CNDA"

⚠ If the CNDA thinks that the case you make isn't considered strong enough defence to contest the OFPRA decision, the CNDA can reject your appeal without a thorough review or a hearing. (It is called "décision de rejet par ordonnance CNDA").

The hearing takes place, within the premises of the CNDA's building (National Court of Asylum) in Montreuil, near Paris. Be careful, there are two different locations! Read your letter carefully to check the address of your meeting.

It is important that you attend the hearing.

⚠ If you are unable to attend due to health or family issues, you can ask the CNDA for your interview to be conducted remotely. If you are under house arrest or being held in a CRA, the hearing will take place remotely via video link.

APPLYING FOR YOUR CASE TO BE RECONSIDERED “RÉEXAMEN”

If you hear about new events that make your country more unsafe for you, you can apply to the OFPRA for reconsideration of your asylum application. There are no specific time limits to apply for reconsideration.

The only condition is to have new facts confirming the threats against you if you return to your country.

Be sure to understand what defines a new fact.

If you apply for reconsideration with a file that does not meet the criteria described here, your application will be rejected without an interview. It is very possible to receive an Obligation to Leave French Territory (OQTF).

What is a new fact?

It is an event indicating that you may still fear persecution or serious threats, meaning those threats are still going on. A fact is new if it occurred after the final rejection of your previous asylum application.

Therefore, a fact is new if it happened:

- After the date of the decision of the National Court of Asylum (CNDA)
- After the date of the OFPRA's decision (if you did not appeal to the CNDA)
- If the event occurred before the decision of rejection from the OFPRA or the CNDA, the fact could be considered new if you can prove that you did not know about it at the time of the rejection decision, or if you give reasons for not being able to talk about the specific event during your first application.

Hearings are public, so open to anyone to attend. Note that you can attend someone else's hearing to help you prepare for your own hearing.

During the hearing, you will sit before a panel, or a single judge.

Your lawyer will sit on your right side, and your interpreter on your left side.

If your asylum application is processed in a fast-track procedure, the court panel will not be made up of three people but by only one judge.

On the day of the hearing, you can ask your lawyer to request a hearing without the presence of the public.

The hearing runs as follows:

1. The rapporteur explains your case,
2. The judge(s) ask you questions in order to clarify some points in your story. This part is very important. Speak as naturally and spontaneously as possible, while offering the details and circumstances asked, as the judge will be listening to see if you seem truthful and whether your fears and concerns are believable. (see page 36 with our advice for the OFPRA interview)
Your lawyer will not be able to help you during that part: you know your personal narrative much better than they do !
3. Finally, your lawyer will speak and defend your asylum application, insisting on some important elements of your story and criticizing OFPRA's decision.

You will receive the CNDA's decision within the next three weeks, one week if on the Fast-Track procedure, by registered letter. The decision will also be displayed at the CNDA on a date which will have been specified the day of the hearing.

What to do once you have received the decision?

You will receive the CNDA's final decision within the next three weeks by registered letter to your address. Check your letters at least once a week!

The CNDA can either decide to cancel the OFPRA decision, granting you refugee status or subsidiary protection, or can refuse your asylum application.

If you have been granted refugee status or subsidiary protection:
read page 54 for information about how to go about the next steps.

If the CNDA refuses to grant you protection:
You have very few possibilities left:

- You can appeal in front of the Board of State (Conseil d'Etat) within 2 months, but the conditions are very strict and success is very rare. This appeal only concerns problems linked to the procedure, not the information in your file;
- You can also ask to have your file re-examined but you must have more facts added to your situation that haven't yet been studied by the OFPRA and the CNDA during your asylum application. (See page 50)

⚠ If the CNDA has refused to grant you protection, you will lose your right to stay on French territory. You risk getting arrested and being sent back to your country. Go to a free legal aid office to ask for advice (see page 11 and carefully read page 29 “In case you get arrested” to be sure to know your rights.

Examples of events that can be considered as new facts if they have not been mentioned before to the OFPRA or CNDA:

- The evolution of the political and/or security situation in the country if it has an impact on your personal situation.
- The grant of protection status to a relative whose fears of persecution are related to your own situation.

⚠ New evidence is not a new fact.

Your reconsideration will not be accepted if the element that you add only confirms your previous oral or written statements.

Examples:

- A membership certificate from a political party is not new evidence if you had previously mentioned your membership to this party.
- A newspaper article or a letter from a lawyer mentioning facts that had already been considered in your previous application will only be considered as simple evidence for previous facts.

A new element does not necessarily have to be a written document.

It can be an event that you can describe in oral statements.

In that case, you will have to be very precise about your statement (dates, places, names...) to recount the event.

IMPORTANT TO KNOW

Even if your fact is considered new, it will not automatically ensure protection.

Do not add any documents in your file without explaining how you found them and why you didn't present them during your first asylum application.

It is important to know that even though some documents contain new facts, applications for reconsideration are often rejected by OFPRA and CNDA as they are doubtful about their authenticity.

How to apply for your case to be reconsidered?

Just as for your first asylum application, the application for reconsideration is handled by the OFPRA and the CNDA.

First of all, you must go to the SPADA to make an appointment with the prefecture to hand in your application for reconsideration.

You should go to the SPADA in the same region of the prefecture where you made your first application.

In Paris and Île-de-France, you can call the OFII number ☎ 01 42 500 900 (not free) and specify you want to apply for reconsideration.

At the prefecture you should be given an attestation for your asylum application and an application form (pink). Your application will automatically be processed in a fast-track procedure. The time it takes to examine the application will be very short.

⚠ We recommend you rewrite your story with the new facts and ask for advice from a specialized organisation (see page 11) before going to the prefecture. You only have 8 days to send your file to the OFPRA.

If your application for reconsideration is declared invalid by OFPRA, you can appeal to the CNDA to contest this decision.

If the application is declared valid but, after the re-examination, is rejected by the OFPRA, you can also appeal to the CNDA (see page 53)

IF YOU HAVE BEEN GRANTED PROTECTION

When your asylum claim is successful, the OFPRA or CNDA grants you 'international protection': refugee status, subsidiary protection status or stateless person status.

This means that:

- You are protected by the French State,
- You have the right to remain in France,
- You will be able to access a number of rights that are granted to French people.

⚠ As soon as you receive the decision, you must go to the ANEF (Digital Administration for Foreigners in France) website to apply for a residency permit, BPI, and get a receipt (récépissé) <https://administration-etrangers-en-france.interieur.gouv.fr/particuliers/#/> then select the « Je demande ou renouvelle un titre de séjour » section.

To make an account on the ANEF website, you need your foreign national number (AJ-DREF), which can be found on your Certificate of Asylum Application (ATDA) and the start and expiry dates of your ATDA's validity. The récépissé is a provisional document which certifies the "recognition of international protection" (reconnaissance de protection internationale) granted you and enables you to start the next steps of your procedure while you wait for your residence card, or multi-year residence permit.

What are your rights?

The OFPRA will give you official identity documents ("documents d'état civil") in your name that are recognised by French administration (birth certificate, wedding certificate...).

⚠ You will not be allowed to contact your own country's administration, otherwise you risk losing state protection and therefore having to return to your country of origin.

Right to remain: after receiving your civil status documents from OFPRA,

- Refugees get a residency card valid for 10 years
- Beneficiaries of subsidiary protection get a renewable residency card with an initial validity of 4 years.
- You can ask for travel documents ("titres de voyage") which allow you to travel to any country except your home country. Request these documents at the Prefecture, online or by postal mail. You will need 2 identity photos, your residency permit, proof of residency and your OFPRA international protection attestation. The ANEF may also request the civil status certificate issued by OFPRA. The travel documents cost 45€.
- As soon as you receive the decision from the OFPRA or the CNDA, you can get full citizen rights to benefit from social and family benefits (RSA, social housing application ...)
- You are allowed to work in France and can register with France Travail. For more information see page 38.
- You can go back to University. See page 37.
- You can change your driver's licence to a French driver's licence. For this, the driving licence must be valid, must have been obtained before the first residence permit or long-stay visa was issued, and must be in French or accompanied by an official translation. Procedures for exchanging a foreign driver's licence can now only be done online on the ANTS website: <https://permisdeconduire.ants.gouv.fr>

⚠ WARNING: You can only exchange your driver's permit for one year after you received your residency permit. The driver's licence exchange is not possible for people coming from Afghanistan, Eritrea, Nigeria, Pakistan, Senegal, Somalia and Syria (see the complete list on the Public Service website: <https://www.service-public.fr/simulateur/calcul/PermisEtrangerPermisFrancais>)

Family reunification ("réunification familiale")

Your family can join you in France:

- This can be your husband, wife or partner
⚠ Beware: If the marriage was conducted after your asylum application, then you will go through a different and more difficult procedure called "regroupement familial" in French.
- Your children (under 20 years old) and your partner's children (under 18 years old)

If you are under 18 years old, you can ask for your parents and, if they are under 18 years old, your brothers and sisters.

How to have your family join you?

1. Your family must ask for a long-stay visa at their closest French consulate with these documents: A filled-in application form, your OFPRA international protection attestation, a copy of your birth or wedding certificate 4 identity pictures per member of your family, and the passports of each family member. The application costs €99

2. Once the application has been registered with the consulate, the Office for Refugees' Families (Bureau des familles de réfugiés) should contact you to get: a copy of your residence card or of your récépissé, a filled-out form concerning your family, your proof of residence and other documents proving your family ties.

3. The procedure can take up to 8 months.

- If your family's visa application is approved, they have 3 months to arrive in France.
- If your family's visa application is refused or if they don't receive any answer from the consulate, you have 2 months to appeal with the Commission for Appeals or Visa Refusals. Consult a lawyer, especially if the issue relates to your civil status.

How to get help?

These first steps may seem complicated, don't forget that you can get help from various specialist organisations:

- The SPADA reception centre or housing centre you were living in during the procedure. They can help you seek full citizen rights and find new accommodation.
- The communal social action centre (centre communal d'action sociale, or CCAS) of the town or region you live in. Make an appointment with a social worker, who should assist you with your financial and employment procedure as well as your application for social housing.
- You can also go to the legal help centres specialising in helping refugees (see page 11)
- You can contact the organisation, SAFE PASSAGE, who support with family reunification processes:

RESIDENCE PERMITS

Residency permits are a different way (from asylum) of getting a residency permit in France (papers). There are several residency permits (titres de séjour), because you can apply for several reasons: private and family life in France, health, work...

A residence permit and receiving refugee status do not have the same purpose. When applying for asylum, you will be asked about the persecutions that you face in your home country, whereas to obtain a residence permit, it is your situation in France that matters.

In many cases, you will need documented proof on how long you have been staying in France, how well you speak the language, your ties to French citizens or foreign nationals who have a residence permit.

You will therefore need to put together lots of documents proving that you have been staying in France. For further help and information on those documents, see page 6 and get in touch with an specialised organisation for advice on your personal situation (see page 11).

Residence permits are mostly applied for at the French consulate of your home country.

There you will apply for a long-stay visa (visa D) that enables you to obtain a residence permit (for example: for a family reunification, to study in France, to work in France). The long-stay visa differs from the tourist visa, which only lasts 3 months (visa C).

However, if you are already in France, you can obtain the right to stay on French territory by applying for specific residency permits. This is called “regularisation”.

It is possible to apply for a residency permit:

- If you are in an “irregular situation,” meaning if you do not have papers that give you the right to stay in France.
- If you are seeking asylum. When you file your asylum application at the prefectures, you will be asked if you also want to apply for a residency permit. You will need to give a response within two months, except for the ‘residency permit for health reasons’ for which you have 3 months. Your application for a residency permit will only be processed once you have received an answer on your asylum application. You will not be able to apply for a new residency permit if your asylum application is rejected, except in certain specific cases.

⚠ There are many conditions to obtaining a residency permit and applying for one is a complicated and risky procedure. Each application is specific to itself and the chances of obtaining a residency permit depends on your individual situation. Keep in mind that if your application is rejected, you are always at risk of expulsion. For more information on what to do if you are arrested, see page 29.

It is therefore important to get advice from lawyers before applying for a residency permit.

Go to a legal help centre to evaluate your specific situation and to fill in your application (see page 11), even if you easily meet the requirements for a residency permit.

Some residency permits are more certain than others. It is important to note the difference between “Residence permits as fundamental rights” and “Discretionary residence permits”.

The criteria to obtain a “residence permit as fundamental rights” are included in the law.

Usually, if you meet these criteria, your residence permit should be delivered by the prefectures. If your application is rejected, a lawyer can be contacted in order to “appeal” the decision. Most “private and family life” residency permits are fundamental rights (parent of a French child, married to a French citizen, significant private and family ties). This is also the case for the “residence permit for health reasons” when serious illnesses cannot be treated in the home country. Warning: there are many conditions to obtain it, but they can be unclear!

Exceptional Residence Permits (Admission Exceptionnelle au Séjour - AES)

Exceptional Residence Permits are riskier and more difficult to obtain because, they are subject to the discretionary assessment of the prefect, allowing them to make the final decision. This means that even if you meet the criteria for a residence permit, the prefect can still reject your application. For instance, the work permit is discretionary.

Please note that to meet all the conditions (even for “residence permits as fundamental rights”) does not mean you will automatically be approved for a residency permit. Keep in mind that if your application is rejected, you are always at risk of expulsion. Don’t start the procedure by yourself. Ask for help from an organization that specializes in residence permits (see page 11)

The Retailleu memorandum of January 2025, tightened the criteria for getting an AES by increasing the length of stay in France to 7 years, as well as requiring a certified level of proficiency in French, and to have never received an order to leave French territory (OQTF).

Residence permits in the context of a regularization in France

- FUNDAMENTAL RIGHTS (meet the conditions, sometimes unclear)
- DISCRETIONARY (meet the conditions + application accepted by prefect)
